

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

IN VACATION.

A Child of Genius.—Judge—“This is the third time you've been drunk this week. What are you?”

“But, your honor, I'm a child of genius.”

“What age?”

“Forty-five.”

“Then it's time you're weaned. Thirty days without the bottle.”—Life.

Judge Stops Gambling.—“All gambling must be stopped within the jurisdiction of this court,” thundered the judge.

“Bet you a fiver it can't be done!” said the district attorney.

“Put up your money,” said the judge, reaching for his roll.—Public Ledger.

Medicine for Kleptomania.—“Kleptomania,” remarked the physician, “is a disease.”

“I guess that's right,” rejoined the lawyer. “I've noticed that its victims are always taking something for it.”—Central Law Journal.

The Learned J. P.—I, ——, do hereby certify that I am a Justice of the Peace of the county of ——, and State of Virginia; that at the request of the —— Company, I issued a warrant charging —— for attempting to destroy a bridge on a lumber railroad in ——, Virginia, which the said —— contended was built contrary to his orders, and over his protest across his land; that I presided at the trial of the said warrant, together with Justice ——, of the county of Brunswick, at ——, Virginia, on the 15th day of September, 1909; that I testified in behalf of the Commonwealth in the said case, and afterwards rendered a verdict sending the case to the grand jury of —— County, Virginia; that I testified in the case that the said —— knocked off a brace on the said bridge, and was the only witness who so testified; that I afterwards ascertained that I was mistaken, and that the said —— did not do any damage to the said bridge. I further certify that the warrant that I issued was under Section 3725 of the Code of Virginia, which is felony; that the said warrant was issued on the 29th day of July, 1909, at the request and instance of the —— Company; that it was proven on trial of the case that the said —— Company is a private corporation, and is not a common carrier, and operated only a lumber railroad.

Given under my hand this 15th day of September, 1909.

(Signed) _____,
Justice of the Peace.